BRYAN SAYS

Attempt to Mob Roosevelt Has No Justification

CROKER ASHAMED

Every Decent American Will Condemn the Outrage.

Nebraska City, Sept. 28.—William J. Bryan says of the attempt to mob Teddy Roosevelt at Victor, Col., and back up the political meeting at

"There can be no justification for a resort to violence in this country, and those who resort to it injure the cause they represent."

New York, Sept. 28.—Richard Croker says:

"I must say that every decent American has reason to be ashamed

I am sincerely sorry Gov. Roosevelt met with such harsh treatment."

GEN. PECK HAS RESIGNED

The Resignation Has Been Accepted by Gov. Smith to Take Effect October 1

GEN. GILMORE HIS SUCCESSOR

It is an Appointment That Will Give Universal Satisfaction.
Sketch of Gen. Gilmore.

St. Albans, Sept. 28.—Gen. Theodore S. Peck of Burlington has sent in his resignation as adjutant and inspector general of the state of Vermont to Gov. E. C. Smith to take effect Oct. 1, 1900, and the same has been accepted.

Governor Smith has tendered the position of adjutant and inspector general to William H. Gilmore of West Fairlee, for many years quartermaster general.

General Gilmore has accepted the appointment and his commission was signed yesterday.

William H. Gilmore of Fairlee was born in Fairlee, October 17, 1839, was educated at New London academy, and was a member of Co. D, 8th Vt.
Vols., in the Civil war, being discharged as quartermaster sergeant of the regiment.

He was a member of the house of representatives in 1878 and of the senate in 1882. He has held the usual town offices and has been town treasurer of Fairlee for twenty-seven years. He was first elected quartermaster general in 1886.

With the exception of the adjutant and inspector general of New Jersey, whose position is for life, Gen. Peck is the oldest adjutant general in tenure of office in the United States. His commission dated back to 1881.

When yet a boy he enlisted in the First Vermont cavalry, but owing to his youth his parents refused their consent to his becoming a soldier, and not until five separate attempts had been made was he made a member of Co. F, 1st Vt. Vols.

This was in 1861, and at the outbreak of the war he fought for the Union. In 1862 he was named as regimental quartermaster sergeant of the 9th Vt. Regt.; in 1863, he was second lieutenant of Co. C, in the same regiment; in 1864 he was first lieutenant of Co. H, and in 1865 the company's captain.

When the first regiment, Vermont National Guard was organized, he became its colonel, and in 1881 he received the appointment of adjutant and inspector general.

death of Major Sedgewick Johnson on the night of June 9.

Miller will be arraigned at once and given a chance to plead. The trial of the case will probably not be reached at this time of court.

The time during the morning session of Washington County court was taken up by the testimony of the plaintiff in the case of Lillian M.
Sprague vs. the town of Quakus. There

GREAT STRIKE

ment in Pa.

ALL QUIET TO-DAY.

The Miners Are Confident of Winning.

Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—The leading feature of the coal strike situation today and one which attracted the attention of all interests involved, was the widely circulated report that negotiations are pending and rapidly nearing completion for an amicable settlement of the strike.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 28.—Cardinal Gibbons has been asked to act as arbitrator between the striking miners and the operators of the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania. While admitting that he had been approached on the subject, his eminence said, that he had heard from only one side of the parties in controversy and must decline to discuss the question of arbitration until all had been heard from.

"Will you consent to act if both sides do approach you?" the cardinal was asked.
"In that case I shall take the matter under very serious consideration, very serious consideration," he added as if to emphasize the remark.
Continuing, his eminence declared that he would be glad to do anything in his power to help solve the problem which seriously affects so many souls.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 28.—The mine operators this morning say that region.

Shamokin, Pa., Sept. 28.—Contrary to the expectations of the strike leaders, most of the employees of the North Franklin colliery near Trevorton, operated by Philadelphia & Reading are reported at work this morning under the protection of a big force of deputies and police. There is signs of a clash. The strikers agreed last night to keep away from the company's property. Not a colliery in this section except this one is at work.
